La Commission du droit international est un organe d'experts, composé de personnes possédant une compétence notoire en matière de droit international, qui œuvre au développement progressif et à la codification du droit international. Annuaire de la Commission du droit international: Volume I: Comptes rendus de séance; Volume II: Texte des principaux rapports établis au cours de l'année, y compris le rapport annuel à l'Assemblée générale. L'objectif de cette recherche est de comprendre comment s'exerce la parentalité d'accueil dans le contexte des visites supervisées. À partir du point de vue des familles d'accueil, cette étude vise à décrire leur compréhension des visites supervisées; leur implication dans la planification de celles-ci; l'accompagnement qu'elles offrent à l'enfant et la communication qu'elles ont avec les différents acteurs impliqués dans les visites supervisées. Pour ce faire, des entrevues semi-dirigées ont été réalisées avec quatorze parents d'accueil affiliés au programme jeunesse du Centre intégré universitaire de santé et de services sociaux du Centre-Sud-de-l'Île-de-Montréal. Les entrevues ont été soumises à une démarche d'analyse de contenu thématique. Le modèle théorique et conceptuel écosystémique de la parentalité a été utilisé pour décrire les différentes dimensions de la parentalité d'accueil dans le contexte des visites supervisées. Les résultats de cette recherche démontrent que les familles d'accueil ont une bonne compréhension des visites supervisées en termes des objectifs visés et des motifs de leur mise en place. Pour ce qui est de la planification des visites supervisées, l'implication des familles d'accueil est variable. Certaines rapportent être impliquées dans les prises de décisions tandis que d'autres témoignent se faire imposer des choix par l'intervenant. En ce qui concerne l'accompagnement offert aux enfants, des besoins de formation et/ou de coaching ont été identifiés par bon nombre de familles d'accueil. Il ressort également de cette étude que les familles d'accueil ont majoritairement des échanges positifs avec l'intervenant. Quant à la communication avec les parents d'origine, une panoplie d'expériences autant positive que négative a été rapportée par les familles d'accueil. L'analyse du discours des participants a mis en lumière des défis associés à l'exercice de la parentalité d'accueil dans le contexte des visites supervisées. Elle a également soulevé des enjeux reliés à la reconnaissance des familles d'accueil comme partenaire dans la prestation de services à l'enfant. En terminant, cette recherche offre des pistes de réflexion intéressantes concernant la parentalité d'accueil et les pratiques en matière de visites supervisées. In accordance with Article 102 of the Charter and the relevant General Assembly Resolutions, every treaty and international agreement registered or filed and recorded with the Secretariat since 1946 is published in the United Nations Treaty Series. At present, the collection includes about 30,000 treaties reproduced in their authentic languages, together with translations into English and French, as necessary. The Treaty Series, where treaties are published in the chronological order of registration, also provides details about their subsequent history (i.e., participation in a treaty, reservations, amendments, termination, etc.). Comprehensive Indices covering 50-volume-lots are published separately. The "Judicial Reports/Recueils judiciaires" of the International Criminal Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (ICTY) comprise (in English and French) all public Indictments, as well as Decisions and Judgements issued in a given year. It will give lawyers, scholars, students and the general public convenient access to the historic work of the ICTY, which was established pursuant to United Nations Security Council Resolution 827 in 1993 to try individuals accused of serious violations of international humanitarian law committed in the territory of the former Yugoslavia since 1991. The "Judicial Reports" are organized chronologically by case. Within each case, one will find the text of Indictments, reviews of Indictments and, where applicable, deferral requests. Thereafter the text of a public review of the Indictment pursuant to Rule 61 may follow. The publication also contains the texts of the Orders, Decisions and Judgements, as well as the separate and/or dissenting opinions that may accompany a given Trial Chamber or Appeals Chamber ruling. The "Judicial Reports" will contribute to a greater knowledge of the judicial activities of the ICTY. Various annexes, such as a table of cases, a list of Indictments and Indictees, a table of Deferrals and of Rule 61 Procedures, as well as a table of references, facilitates the use of these volumes. Sacred Thresholds. The Door to the Sanctuary in Late Antiquity offers a far-reaching account of liminal spaces within Christian and pagan sanctuaries, with interdisciplinary and diachronic perspectives on the experience of those who crossed from the worldly to the divine, both physically and symbolically. The fifteen papers presented here examine three centuries of close, if sometimes ambiguous, links between Christian mission and medicine. The authors, who include theologians, historians, sociologists, physicians and representatives of major international health-care organisations, address themselves to such questions as: How is one to assess the results of past missionary health-care effort? How are modern-day Christian organisations to cope with the burden of institutions set up in the past? What links should the Churches maintain with official medical organisations? What position should the Churches take on the 'faith volume healing' debate begun by certain religious groups? And how is one to lay the groundwork of a theology of health and healing? The complexity of the issues outlined here can - alas - provide no easy answers. Quinze auteurs, compris théologiens, historiens, sociologues, médecins et responsables d'organisations sanitaires, ont centré leurs réflexions sur le rôle des Églises chrétiennes dans le domaine de la santé, hier dans les pays de mission, aujourd'hui dans ces mêmes régions où se mûrit une véritable inculturation du christianisme. Dans cet ouvrage ils abordent plusieurs questions fondamentales: comment évaluer les résultats et lacunes de l'action sanitaire des missions dans le passé? Les communautés chrétiennes actuelles doivent-elles porter le poids d'institutions mises en place hier? Quels rapports les Églises doivent-elles entretenir avec les organisations médicales officielles? Comment les Églises se situent-elles dans la dialectique 'foi-guérison' développée par certains groupes religieux? Plus profondément, comment poser les jalons d'une théologie de la santé et de la guérison? Trouver les réponses sur ces questions complexes c'est une tâche très délicate. First published in 1970. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informa company. A majority of the chapters in this book were originally presented as papers at a conference held at Queen's University Belfast in September 2006. The volume explores the oral-written dynamic in the conte français/francophone, focusing on key aspects of the relationship between oral and written forms of the conte. The chapters fall into four broad thematic areas (the oral-written dynamic in early modern France; literary appropriations and transformations; postcolonial contexts; storytelling in contemporary France: linguistic strategies). Within these broad areas, some chapters deal with sources and influences (such as that of written on oral and vice versa), others with the nature of the discourse resulting from an oral-written dynamic (discourse structure, linguistic features etc.), some with the oral-written interface as it affects the definition of genre, others with the role of the 'oral' within the literary or written text (use of storytelling scenarios, the problematics inherent in transcribing/adapting the spoken word etc.). This chronological and methodological range allows us to situate the emergence of the form in socio-cultural and historical terms, and to open up debate around the role of the conte in particular geographical and political contexts: regional, national, European and postcolonial. This book contains contributions in both English and French. In accordance with Article 102 of the Charter and the relevant General Assembly Resolutions, every treaty and international agreement registered or filed and recorded with the Secretariat since 1946 is published in the United Nations Treaty Series. The eleven chapters of Vocabulary in a Second Language are written by the world's leading researchers in the field of vocabulary studies in second language acquisition. Each chapter presents experimental research leading to new conclusions about and insights into the selection, the learning and teaching, or the testing of vocabulary knowledge in foreign languages. This book is intended as an up-to-date overview of the important domain of the lexicon for researchers in the field of second language acquisition, teacher trainers and professional teachers of second or foreign languages.

Industrie de l'accueil, industrie de l'hospitalité, industrie de services, bref de multiples façons d'identifier un secteur aujourd'hui en perpétuelle évolution et en quête de son identité. Cet ouvrage a la volonté de présenter l'hospitalité comme un concept lié à l'industrie de l'accueil et, plus particulièrement, aux métiers de l'accueil. La fonction d'hospitalité tend aujourd'hui à trouver sa "niche" dans les organigrammes comme fonction stratégique de support, à l'instar des finances, du marketing, etc. Les auteurs apportent ici avant tout une vision critique et conceptuelle sur la transformation d'un secteur économique, lié à l'évolution du tourisme en général et aux nouveaux comportements des consommateurs. Grâce à ce manuel original, le lecteur pourra comprendre l'histoire, le développement et les tendances actuelles de l'industrie de l'accueil, tant au niveau international que national, tout en maîtrisant ses composantes, ses particularismes et son influence globale. Cet ouvrage s'adresse aux enseignants et étudiants des métiers de l'accueil, ainsi qu'aux professionnels et praticiens de l'industrie de l'accueil. Il intéressera également toute personne souhaitant comprendre le fonctionnement de ce secteur en pleine mutation. This volume of the "Yearbook of the European Convention on Human Rights, prepared by the Directorate of Human Rights of the Council of Europe, relates to 2003. Part one contains information on the Convention. Part two deals with the control mechanism of the European Convention on Human Rights: selected judgments of the European Court of Human Rights and human rights (DH) resolutions of the Committee of Ministers; part three groups together the other work of the Council of Europe in the field of human rights, and includes the work of the Committee of Ministers, the Parliamentary Assembly and the Directorate General of Human Rights; part four is devoted to information on national legislation and extracts from national judicial decisions concerning rights protected by the Convention. Appendix A contains a bibliography on the Convention, and Appendix B the biographies of the new judges elected to the European Court of Human Rights. De 1851 à 1975, cinquante millions d'immigrants se seraient succédé sur le sol français. Belges, Italiens, Espagnols, Polonais sont venus par vagues successives combler les vides laissés dans les champs par l'exode rural. Alors que ses voisins européens devaient sacrifier leur agriculture à leur industrie, ces immigrés de la terre ont permis à la France de préserver son agriculture tout en développant ses usines. Ronald Hubscher, notre meilleur spécialiste de l'histoire rurale, reconstruit cette face cachée de l'immigration en France. Il reconstitue les réseaux familiaux, villageois ou professionnels qui l'ont canalisée, l'ambivalence de leur accueil, la formation d'une société originale, leur refus de l'intégration et leur retour à leur terre d'origine. Avec ce regard neuf sur l'immigration, c'est toute la question de l'identité française qui se pose à nouveaux frais. Introduction Présentation Chapitre premier. L'invasion Chapitre II. This book continues the series Select Proceedings of the European Society of International Law, containing the proceedings of the Third Biennial Conference organised by ESIL and the Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law in 2008. The conference was entitled 'International Law in a Heterogeneous World', reflecting an idea which is central to the ESIL philosophy. Heterogeneity is considered one of the pillars upon which Europe's contribution to international law is built and the subject was considered in a number of panels, including such diverse topics as migration, the history of international law, the rules on warfare and international environmental law. This book charts the evolution of EU law (both internal market and institutional law) through the jurisprudence of one of its leading jurists. Few have as close an eye-witness view of the evolution of European Union law as judges at the ECJ. They not only observe, however, but actively work towards its development. This collection assesses the momentous contribution to European Union law made by José Luís da Cruz Vilaça. Taking those areas of law which were directly shaped by his judgments (institutional law/internal market/free movement of persons and judicial review), leading scholars assess his legacy. Through this prism, the story of EU law can be charted. In October 1873, as every Conference Report recalls, the Association for the Reform and Codification of the Law of Nations was founded in Brussels (Belgium). At the Brussels Conference of 1895 the Association's name was changed and ever since it has been "The International Law Association". On August 30 and 31 and September 1, 1973, a Centenary Celebration will be held in the Association's place of birth. In the course of preparations made for this triduum, plans were also laid by the Executive Council for a Centenary Volume to mark the event. The formula adopted for the book was mostly based on contributions by Chairmen and/or Rapporteurs of International Committees of the Association who were asked to shed light on "the present state" of their subject. Hence the title of the Volume. For good measure, various other topics not coming under the terms of reference of International Committees were added. Almost all of the authors invited responded favourably, and their studies are to be found in Part II, arranged in sections which have no other justification than the Editor's whim. It should be pointed out that Chairmen and/or Rapporteurs of International Committees wrote their articles a titre personnel and, therefore, cannot be deemed to express opinions held by their Committees as such. Part I contains the "other essays", dealing with the Association itself rather than with the present state of international law. The Migration Conference 2017 hosted by Harokopio University, Athens from 23 to 26 August. The 5th conference in our series, the 2017 Conference was probably the largest scholarly gathering on migration with a global scope. Human mobility, border management, integration and security, diversity and minorities as well as spatial patterns, identity and economic implications have dominated the public agenda and gave an extra impetus for the study of movers and non-movers over the last decade or so. Throughout the program of the Migration Conference you will find various key thematic areas are covered in about 400 presentations by about 400 colleagues coming from all around the world from Australia to Canada, China to Mexico, South Africa to Finland. We are also proud to bring you opportunities to meet with some of the leading scholars in the field. Our line of keynote speakers include Saskia Sassen, Oded Stark, Giuseppe Sciortino, Neli Esipova, and Yüksel Pazarkaya. Trop de chefs d'entreprise pensent que l'accueil coûte et ne rapporte pas. Au nom de cette croyance, ils négligent l'accueil ou réduisent les coûts qui y sont liés. Il existe pourtant un lien direct entre accueil et rentabilité. Ce livre s'adresse à toutes celles et tous ceux qui ont compris que l'accueil, porte d'entrée de leur entreprise, change le vécu de ceux qui y vivent et de ceux qui s'y rendent. La notion d'accueil est élargie à l'ensemble des acteurs qui gravitent dans et autour de l'entreprise: clients, fournisseurs, contrôleurs ou agents de l'état, candidats au recrutement, nouveaux collaborateurs, collègues de travail. Cette deuxième édition, tout comme la première, est construite comme une guide pratique qui regorge d'outils, de trucs et ficelles et vous accompagne dans la mise en place d'une véritable stratégie d'accueil pour votre entreprise. Une large part de cette édition est réservée à des applications concrètes de l'accueil dans divers secteurs tels que la restauration, l'hôtellerie, le commerce de luxe et le milieu hospitalier. This volume contains the texts of the speeches given and the papers presented at the international study conference 'Children on the Move. How to Implement Their Right to Family Life'. This conference took place at The Hague in the Netherlands from 23-26 October 1994 and was one of the major contributions by the Netherlands to the celebration of the United Nations' International Year of the Family. The conference was convened by the Netherlands Committee for the International Year of the Family in collaboration with the Hague Conference on Private International Law. Children on the Move provides the reader with an in-depth analysis of the various legal aspects (problems and remedies) of intercountry adoption, international child abduction and children as international refugees. Les problèmes psychologiques que rencontre l'enfant hospitalisé sont souvent niés ou minimisés. Il est donc important d'y sensibiliser le grand public, les parents, les professionnels de l'éducation, les administrateurs, et de former les professionnels de la santé à y faire face. Ce numéro est consacré à l'impact économique des migrations sur le développement inclusif des pays d'origine (transferts de fonds et de compétences des migrants, échanges commerciaux, inclusion financière) et des pays d'accueil (emplois délaissés par les natifs, apports des migrants qualifiés) selon les politiques mises en place. Au sommaire : L'impact de la migration sur le développement inclusif / Are government policies efficient to regulate immigration? Evidence from France / L'effet des fluctuations financières sur le nombre de travailleurs frontaliers : une analyse comparative du Luxembourg et de la Suisse / Exhausted migrant effect : La santé des travailleurs immigrés en France / Les comportements entrepreneuriaux des migrants haïtiens dans les territoires d'outre-mer français en Amérique / How does mobile money affect the use of informal remittance channels in sub-Saharan Africa? / Migration and rural development in NENA countries "Words of a Leader: Sheikh Zayed Bin Sultan Al Nahyan" was issued in Arabic and translated into various languages, including English, French, German, Spanish, Russian, Chinese, Hindi and Italian. The book, which was issued in conjunction with the celebration of the birth centenary of the Late Sheikh Zayed Bin Sultan Al Nahyan and "The Year of Zayed", contains selected quotes by Sheikh Zayed that reflect the foundations upon which he established his rule, as well as the principles and values on which his vision to build and develop the United Arab Emirates was founded. Among his most notable principles is his belief that investing in the people is far more important than investing in buildings and material life, and that society's development must include all aspects of life, such as urbanization, economy, social life, culture and all kinds of development. He also called for proper use of resources and wealth and advocated openness to modern science. Through many of Sheikh Zayed's quotes and sayings, the book reveals how deep he was intellectually, and how diverse and rich his vision was, and shows how he was interested in all groups of society and keen to address and provide advice to everyone, particularly the youth, whom he always considered an important contributor to the future and success of this nation. Sheikh Zayed focused on encouraging the youth on every occasion and motivating them to work harder and more creatively. Moreover, he always advocated for respecting women and providing them with equal opportunities in all aspects of life. In accordance with Article 102 of the Charter and the relevant General Assembly Resolutions, every treaty and international agreement registered or filed and recorded with the Secretariat since 1946 is published in the United Nations Treaty Series.
