Tea is one of the world's most popular beverages--and this gorgeous gift book highlights everything from tea harvesting and processing to DIY blends and beyond. Expert and consultant Kathy Chan introduces the reader to her most treasured subject, profiling different techniques from around the world for brewing tea and offering tea-based recipes, including matcha lattes, an Oolong Old-Fashioned, and Lapsang Souchong-Cured Salmon. Kathy presents a full menu of delicacies for the tea aficionado, along with a guide to pairing tea and food and details on her favorite tea services and afternoon teas around the world. A beautifully photographed and designed cookbook and guide to the cultural phenomenon that is boba, or bubble tea--featuring recipes and reflections from The Boba Guys tea shops. Andrew Chau and Bin Chen realized in 2011 that boba--the milk teas and fruit juices laced with chewy tapioca balls from Taiwan that were exploding in popularity in the States--was still made from powders and mixes. No one in the U.S. was making boba with the careful attention it deserved, or using responsible, high-quality ingredients and global, artisanal inspiration. So they founded The Boba Guys: a chic, modern boba tea shop that has now grown to include fourteen locations across the country, bringing bubble tea to the forefront of modern drinks and bridging cultures along the way. Now, with The Boba Book, the Boba Guys will show fans and novices alike how they can make their (new) favorite drink at home through clear step-by-step guides. Here are the recipes that people line up for--from the classics like Hong Kong Milk Tea, to signatures like the Strawberry Matcha Latte and the coffee-laced Dirty Horchata. For the Boba Guys, boba is Taiwanese, it's Japanese, it's Mexican, it's all that and more--which means it's all-American.
