The Billionaire's Blackmailed Heiress May 12 2022 To give her mother her dying wish Mina Lane must deal with the enigmatic and dangerously seductive Nikos Dupris. Only he can give her access to the Villa her father and mother shared while her mother was the mistress of Nikos' hated step-father. He however is in need of help himself, help that only Mina can provide and using her mother's situation blackmails her to save his business. Both distrust the other, yet can they fight the growing attraction they are trying so hard to ignore. Exert "No...no...this will not happen" he had eventually bitten out before finally turning to face Mina, who had managed to pull herself back into a sitting position, her hair still mussed, her lips red from their kiss, her beautiful eyes full of so many different emotions. His voice had been angry, accusing as he had rounded on her. "I know what you are up to Mina, and do not believe me as stupid as my step-father. I have no intention of inheriting his daughter as my mistress. That seems to be the way the women in your family work, but I am not about to become your next meal ticket". Staring back at him with complete disbelief on her face, Mina had leapt to her feet, her hands balled, fury pushing the pain of loss from her. "You arrogant egotistical jerk" she had cried at him, her eyes now full of an anger which burned so brightly in her small face. "How...how dare you! I want nothing to do with you or your entire damn family. You kissed me...I didn't ask you to" seeing as he had given a small pfft noise, as he had moved closer to her "Yes very clever, the poor distressed damsel act, what else was I to do?". Looking at him with complete disbelief she had glared at the man before her, her body still tingling from his kiss. "My God Nikos, it really, really eats you up that you are attracted to the daughter of a man you so despised doesn't it?" He had frowned, seeing as she had raised her chin defiantly at him. "Well that is your problem not mine, I will be out of your hair soon enough". A shadow of pain crossing her eyes as her voice had broken slightly, her anger the only thing keeping the tears from once more sliding down her face "so just stay the hell away from me". With that Mina had turned from him, as her hands had moved protectively around herself feeling the tears once more rising to her eyes, her new found bravado slipping as the conflicting emotions of fear and sorrow and anger had washed over her. For several seconds there had been silence, before in a softer quieter voice he had spoken "So what do we do about this attraction we have Mina?" Giving a small half-laugh full of no mirth she had raised her head to stop the tears spilling over "Your problem Nikos...not mine. I want nothing to do with you. Now just leave." His hands on her shoulder turning her around had been firm, and his eyes had blazed down at her full of such fire. "Liar" He had spoken, as his mouth had once more descended to take her lips, his hands moving around her waist to haul her hard up against him. Mina had wanted to fight him, to push him from her, but the moment their bodies touched she had been lost, her arms flying around his neck to deepen the kiss.

Discerning Vocations to the Apostolic Life, the Contemplative Life, and the Eremitic Life Jul 22 2020 Throughout the spiritual journey, God's love engenders within every Christian active, contemplative, and solitary inclinations. Consequently, each person wants to do some good, to have a basic receptivity to God, and at times to be alone with God. As life unfolds, God's love also calls forth within a person an overriding attraction toward one of those three orientations, which in due course impels the individual toward a corresponding vocational lifestyle: an apostolic life, a contemplative life, or an eremitic life. In this book, the authors identify the core features of those three vocational lifestyles. In light of each vocational core, they then discuss an ensemble of signs and patterns that point to an authentic calling from God. This study offers wisdom and insight to those pondering the mystery of their personal vocations, to those discerning their vocational direction, and to spiritual directors, formation personnel, ecclesial leadership, and Christian educators who accompany them in their quest.

Invisible Personas Jul 26 2023 Emanating from a university teaching position in Singapore, artist Joan Marie Kelly navigates an interwoven view of complex community relations with her own status as foreigner by engaging communities with art making. Bhaskar Mukhopadhyay, a cultural theorist; artist Sarah Schuster, teacher at Oberlin College; Pamela Karimi, an Iranian art historian; and David Cohen, a prominent art critic in New York City, have all written from four distinct perspectives about years of artwork made by an artist deeply involved in the communities surrounding her.

Black Bone Jan 20 2023 Alexa Marie Kelly's new book of poems puts to rest any delusions about race in America, especially with respect to the criminal justice system. She masters the difficult challenge of capturing imprisonment, including executions and suicides, from an exclusively free perspective. Few outsiders can understand a life in which the man or woman never feels safe anywhere, but Kelly eloquently describes it: "The caged heart has no mornings." Black Bone is disturbing but also necessary if this country is ever to move into a post-racial society and leave behind the perpetual long, dark night of a criminal justice system that values money and power over the individual. It is a tonic to the misinformation one hears during the unending election cycles and a volume that should be on any thinking person's reading list.

Millionaire's Society Mistress Sep 16 2022 When Craig Thompson attempts to buy over the Campbell family business, his interest is more in their contacts than the business itself. However, the Campbell's are not about to let an asset stripping ruthless American take control of their business and they refuse leading to a hostile take-over won by the American. Now Craig demands that in exchange for allowing Scott Campbell to remain in control, his sister, the beautiful Fiona Campbell pretend to be his mistress. In doing so he expects her to introduce him to the cold standoffish aristocracy and royalty that make up their client base. What he is not telling her though is that he has no intention for the relationship to remain platonic, making his desire for her very clear. Can Fiona keep the American at arm's length, and more importantly...does she want to. "There may be some truth in what you say. I certainly seem to be having problems getting the 'right people' to talk to me, maybe because of my dispute with you and your brother". Once more letting his look move down her, this time full of a thoughtfulness she did not understand. "Your family are certainly mainstays of this establishment". Frowning, her voice had been wary "Are you saying that you are going to leave my brother in charge?" Craig's smile once more filling his handsome features "And how would that look Miss Campbell? Our rivalry is not exactly a secret" Fiona once more frowning as he had ran a finger along his lip thoughtfully watching her, she scowling softly. "To sell that story there would have to be one hell of a compelling reason for us to be seen as in a position to work together" Fiona had remained silent allowing him to think, knowing that somehow things had changed. She had come to see him to let him know what she thought of him. She had known that he would throw them onto the street the first change he got, this her only opportunity to vent her anger before he once more moved back to the US. "There might be one reason" his eyes fixing her steadily. Frowning she had muttered "What?" her expression wary as so calmly he had dropped his bombshell "If people thought you were my mistress" Fiona had gasped loudly, her body stiffening in indignation. "Never...I would never be your mistress" she had bitten out, angry eyes glaring accusingly at him, as he had given a deep laugh. "Calm down princess...I said thought" Fiona's eyes narrowing "I want into the circles you travel in, and having you by my side will open doors that I seem completely unable to kick down" Frowning she had clamped her mouth shut, her eyes showing the battle raging within her "So you are talking about a business arrangement. Not..." Her hands had flapped nervously as he had once more laughed "Miss Campbell, as lovely as you are your main value to me is based on your contacts. I have no interest in taking an unwilling woman to bed, and from just one moment ago....you seem unwilling".She had flushed hotly, her legs wanting to turn and flee from the room that she had so recently and so spectacularly entered. She was not prepared to admit either to herself or him the way his kiss had brought chaos to her body, still feeling the way his body had felt against hers knowing how close she had been to returning that kiss, a hot flush rising to her cheeks, reminding herself once more in whose arms she had been.
