A modern tale of an inner-directed sorcerer and an outer-directed sorcerer's apprentice, by fantasy, horror and science fiction writer Fritz Leiber. Leiber (1910-1992) was known for his fantasy works, particularly the Fafhrd and the Grey Mouser series, but he also enjoyed success as a science fiction writer. He received the Gandalf award at the World Science Fiction Convention in 1975 and the Grand Master Award at the Science Fiction and Fantasy Writers of America in 1981. School has finally started in Spooksville. For Adam and his friends the first day is disturbing. Their science teacher seems to be an alien monster! He is some weird kind of reptilian creature from another planet. A creature who not only grades hard, but eats his students as well. At least this is what Adam and his friends think. The alien must be evil. He must be destroyed. Unfortunately, their science teacher is not so easy to stop! A New York Times bestseller—now available in paperback. INCLUDES AN EXCLUSIVE BONUS STORY about the medieval Secret Order of the Unicorn! Unicorns are real. (At least we think they are.) Are you ready to protect the creatures of myth and legend? Then you belong in The Unicorn Rescue Society. HURRY-THE CREATURES NEED YOU! Elliot Eisner isn't exactly thrilled with the first day at his new school. His class is going on a field trip to a creepy forest called the Pine Barrens. The trip is being led by Professor Fauna, the weirdest teacher Elliot has ever met. And the only kid who will talk to Elliot, Uchenna Devereaux, isn't afraid of danger. She likes danger. Elliot and Uchenna are about to become part of a secret group of adventurers, The Unicorn Rescue Society, whose goal is to protect and defend the world's mythical creatures. Together with Professor Fauna, Elliot and Uchenna must help rescue a Jersey Devil from a duo of conniving, greedy billionaires, the Schmoke Brothers. Join Elliot and Uchenna on their very first quest as members of the Unicorn Rescue Society in this fantasy-adventure series from Adam Gidwitz, the beloved bestselling and Newbery Honor-winning author of The Inquisitors Tale and A Tale Dark & Grimm. Territory is just as important for animals as it is for humans. Ever wonder why we build fences and walls around our homes? You will see we are not so different. We all like to run and play too! By the way, do you know what the difference is between a mammal and a bird? There are animals that live up high in the mountains where it is cool. They cannot tolerate hotter climates. Eyesight and hearing even matters when you are worried about survival. There's a creature that can't even smell! There's an animal that's actually an acrobat-just wait and see what it can do! At the end of the book is an activity page where you can draw your own animal. This debut book by this new author Debra Pappin Hunt breaks all the rules and will keep the children asking to read it over and over. When the time is right... Lerek will find out everything. The story starts out many years ago. A time of cauldrons and potions. A time when a king's disloyal advisor wants to take the Throne which he feels is rightfully his. A terrible creature is born in a kingdom ruled over by a loving king and his ruthless advisor. The creature is like darkness in a being form, and kills millions of peasants in the kingdom of their home. No one could stand up to the power of this creature, not the rebels who fought back or even the king's wizard. But one thing could rise against the beast. The story continues with Lerek, a boy of fifteen, and his Uncle Quillium. The two face odd events like a man appearing in the evening, a storm unlike any other, and creatures from the past that were suppose to be imprisoned long ago. Is this all coincidence or leading to something bigger that may involve the vile creature from the past? This is the first of the series of the "Creature of Darkness". Read how it will take Lerek to great lengths to learn new things that may help him in the end, and yet have him suffer from mistakes of his own. "Stunning. . . . a bit like if you took Charlie and the Chocolate Factory and Monsters Inc. and shoved them in a TARDIS."—Buzzfeed It's a tentacled, inventive, gooey, world in there. . . . Elliot Von Doppler and his friend Leslie think nothing ever happens in Bickleburgh, except inside the gleaming headquarters of DENKi-3000—the world's eighth-largest electronics factory. Beneath the glass towers and glittering skywalks, there's a rambling old mansion from which all the company's amazing inventions spring forth. And no one except Uncle Archie knows what's behind the second-to-last door at the end of the hall. Until Elliot and Leslie are invited to take a glimpse inside. They find stooped, troll-like creatures with jutting jaws and broken teeth. Tiny winged things that sparkle as they fly. And huge, hulking, hairy nonhumans (with horns). It is unlike anything they've ever seen. But when Chuck Brickweather threatens to shut down the DENKi-3000 factory if a new product isn't presented soon, the creatures know they are in danger. And when Uncle Archie vanishes, it's up to Elliot, Leslie, and every one of the unusual, er, "employees" to create an invention so astonishing it will save the Creature Department. Cosmic terror strikes as a messenger of death sweeps through the universe. In the chilling depths of darkness, a malevolent presence lurks, weaving a web of terror and despair. "The Shadow Stalker: A Creature from the Dark" takes readers on a heart-pounding journey through a realm where nightmares come to life and the boundaries between reality and the supernatural blur. As she delves deeper, nightmares are unleashed, threatening her sanity and testing her resolve. The desolate woods hold secrets that challenge her every step, and the malevolent gaze of the vengeful specter follows her every move. Driven by a cryptic diary and guided by echoes of the past, Emily navigates treacherous labyrinths and faces the relentless webs of despair that seek to ensnare her. The curse awakens, and she finds herself trapped in a cavern, surrounded by the suffocating embrace of darkness. Through the demon's pact and the shadows of the past, she must confront her deepest fears and untangle the haunting secrets that lie beneath the surface. As Emily's journey unfolds, she finds herself shrouded in fear, haunted by wailing echoes that reverberate through her very soul. Lost in the labyrinth of her own emotions, she battles against malevolent gazes and whispers in the wind, never ceasing in her quest for truth and redemption. In the midnight ritual that culminates in a cataclysmic confrontation, Emily faces the ultimate challenge—confronting the Shadow Stalker itself. With victory hanging in the balance, she harnesses the power of light, transforming her very being into a force that defies the darkness. "The Shadow Stalker: A Creature from the Dark" is a spine-tingling tale that immerses readers in a world where the line between horror and reality blurs. Enter a realm of dread and suspense, where the unknown lurks in every corner and nightmares become all too real. Prepare to be captivated by "The Shadow Stalker: A Creature from the Dark," a chilling horror novel that will leave you breathless and questioning the shadows that linger just out of sight. Do Animals Believe In God? is a story of what some of the creatures of the earth might say if they could speak if asked, "Do you believe in God?" This book is filled with beautiful illustrations of Daniel's journey. Daniel decides to go on a journey to ask the creatures he meets whether they believe in God. Each of the creatures has their own special story to tell Daniel about why they believe in God. As Daniel ventures across different terrains--from his backyard, to a farm, through a forest, into a jungle, across a garden, along a river, and along the shore of the ocean--he meets creatures big and small that share their story with Daniel. It surprises Daniel to learn that each creature has its own unique story to tell about God, which reflects on their own way they experienced God, and they share their story in a way that is easily understood by Daniel. Some of the answers to Daniel's question will surprise you or humor you. As the story comes to a close, Daniel finds himself returning home after a day filled with exploration, adventure, and answers. His final question about God is to his mom and dad, who confirms what Daniel had learned on his journey: God is the Creator of all living creatures on the earth, under the earth, in the oceans and seas, and in the air. This easy-to-read and colorful book allows a child's imagination to wander and think what a creature would say if they could understand and respond to a question asked by a little boy named Daniel. Its message is timeless and eternal. Each page brings a different message than the last page read, so your child will, in anticipation, want to see what is next. You must remain here, Theron stated.
