This Volume contains the books: - Telepathy for Beginners - Telepathy for Advanced Learners - Telekinesis for Beginners - Auto-Movement for Beginners - Astrology for Beginners - The Language of the Moon - for Beginners - Feng Shui for Beginners - Kundalini for Beginners Feng Shui is the knowledge of how to grasp the quality of a place and shape it according to one's own ideas with the help of physical and magical methods. Feng Shui is therefore related to geomancy, leyline lore, dowsing and pendulum. However, there are also close and very direct connections to crop circles, knowledge of acupuncture meridians, chakras, astrology, dragons in myths, and much more - which may not be immediately apparent at first glance. The method of recognizing the quality of a place is as precise as a science - certain forms can be clearly assigned to certain qualities. This analytical approach is then complemented by magical methods such as dream journeys, clairvoyance, family constellations, tarot cards, and the like. Imprinting the life force of a place is ultimately the same as charging a talisman or consecrating a temple. One should not overestimate the influence of places, but one should also not underestimate the benefit of shaping a place according to one's own ideas. In such a materially and magically designed place, one can do what one wants to do in an effortless way. And why not make life a little easier for yourself? This Volume contains the books: - Invocations for Beginners - Evocations for Beginners - Prophecy for Beginners - Life Force for Beginners - Magic Objects for Beginners - Elves for Beginners - Crop Circles for Beginners The Kundalini is a part of the "life force circuit" in the life force body of the human being. The chakras are the "organs" of this life force body. The life force itself is a concept or image that describes the transition between consciousness and the body. The unimpeded flow of the life force is therefore essential to both physical health and the happy state of the psyche. There are many different approaches to allow the Kundalini to flow freely again: meditations, rituals, therapies, etc. These different approaches have different effects and can support each other. In this book the main features of these methods are described, so that a rough orientation is possible and you can start to awaken your Kundalini yourself. Apart from self-healing, which enables the awakening of the Kundalini, there are also many other effects of the awakened Kundalini in the field of magic. The path does not end when self-healing has been achieved - life really begins when you have achieved this healing! Magic is the influencing of matter by consciousness. Consequently, the transition between consciousness and matter is the crux of magic - this transition is what is often called "life force". Among other things, the structure of the chakras is found there, which is why the knowledge of the chakras and their properties is an important basis for magic. This includes not only the importance of the Third Eye for hypnosis, the significance of the Hara for combat magic, or the function of the solar plexus in life force vampirism, but also the dynamics of the entire chakra system and the gesture that results from it as an ideal state - which is the optimal basis of both magic and a life full of joy. Invocation is the imagination of a deity and the subsequent identification with this imagined image of the deity. This procedure is one of the basics of magic, because through such an identification one's own possibilities of perception and action become many times greater. This technique goes back to the late Paleolithic Age, when hunters identified themselves with a panther in order to obtain the strength and speed of a panther during their hunt. Later, the grain god was invoked in the Neolithic period, and then the One God was invoked in kingship. The effectiveness of the technique of invocation, of course, like all magical phenomena, cannot be proven by words, but at least described in such a way that you may try this technique yourself. As with almost all things, patience and practice are beneficial, but there are also some methods, such as dream travel, that make the whole thing much easier and more effective.

Summoning spirits (evocation) does not have the best reputation ... as long as they are not called "apparitions of Mary", "cult of the dead", "invocations of gods", "spiritualism" or "family constellations" ... What is so scary about contact with spirits? In dream journeys one also meets all kinds of spirits - and poltergeists always come quite unasked. The problem is mainly the fear of death, of the spirits of the dead. This has not always been the case - close contact with the dead was first demonized by the Christian missionaries: They put the one God Father in place of the deceased physical father of every human being - and formed the devil from the archetype of the ancestor spirit. There is hardly an early culture in which spirits were not conjured up. Examples of this can be found in the Neolithic Age, in Egypt, Sumer, among the Hittites, the Romans, in Africa, in the Old and New Testaments, among the Germanic peoples, the Celts, in Islam, and so on. There is a great variety in the methods of evocation, in the reasons for them, in their procedure and in their place in the culture - but the basic principle is very simple. Telepathy is nothing exotic - it is a part of everyday life - haven't you often looked around involuntarily when someone was staring at you from behind? If you want to do experiments to solidly prove the existence of telepathy and to find out how it works, you will find it in this book. There are a large number of phenomena that are based in whole or in part on telepathy: Hypnosis, dream journeys, homeopathy, oracles such as the Tarot cards, and many more. Telepathy is also closely related to other phenomena such as astral projection, poltergeists, foretelling the future, and the like. Often one cannot even clearly assign a phenomenon to one of these areas: Is the crashing of PCs, whose users are in stress, now telepathy or telekinesis? From the experiments and phenomena a simple model can be derived, which resembles the "collective subconsciousness" of C.G Jung. Such a model can help to use telepathy more purposefully. Spell chants have a very long tradition - already in the Egyptian Book of the Dead some texts are praised as "spells that can be sung well". Moreover, in many traditions magicians are not called "speakers", but "singers". It is obviously worthwhile to take a closer look at the nature of singing in contrast to the spoken word in magic. Singing and speaking are the expression of different chakras and they also have a different effect. Therefore, there are situations in which a magic chant is the appropriate thing to do, and situations in which a spoken spell is the right thing to do - or "going into silence". These reflections are complemented by about 90 examples of spell chants from various cultures. Money spells don't necessarily have the best reputation - quite wrongly. Why not live in abundance? There are a lot of classical methods to get money - from Jupiter talisman to sigil magic. This also works reasonably well. However, you can also be more thorough and explore why you have had too little money so far - for this you can use the horoscope, knowledge of the chakras and some other things. If by improved self-knowledge regarding money there are no more "Yes, but ..." wishes, but instead "Yes, gladly!" wishes, one's own money magic will also become more effective. But one can do it still another step more thoroughly: One can look at the own relationship to the abundance altogether and see whether something in one's own life is no longer in the center: Has the fire become polarized to power and powerlessness? The water to renunciation and gluttony? The air to lies and bossiness? The earth to poverty and gluttony? If one can dissolve these polarized extremes, truth, power, love and flourishing will again come into one's life. But even this is not the real foundation of the money theme: There is the possibility to live in trust to the world and in responsibility for the world and to connect with the world through a constantly working magic, so that abundance can flow at any time. Would you like to join us on this journey of discovery? Astrology is the best known and the most precise oracle system. With its help one can create horoscopes describing the character of people, companies and events. However, astrology is not simply a matter of fateful and unintentional imprinting, but a recognition of how one is, based on the parable of the position of the planets at the time of birth. The horoscope describes a person as a play: the ascendant is the stage set; the planets are the actors; the zodiac signs are the roles of the actors; the astrological houses are the areas of life in which the actors appear; the ego is the director who is responsible for the level of the play - and if the director should ever get stuck, he can ask the scriptwriter, i.e. the soul, for the meaning of this play. This book contains all the information necessary for the interpretation of a horoscope - but everything in a rather short form, because this introduction for beginners should not get 1000 pages ... Usually magic begins with simple telepathy experiments, the production of talismans, telekinesis experiments and the like. However, these beginnings, which mainly show that magic is possible, can be increased significantly - first by practice, then by recognizing one's own soul, and finally by one-pointedness, invocations, presence, and the like. Thus simple, ordinary magic can eventually be increased to extraordinary magic - to "miracles" such as firewalks, spontaneous healings, and materializations. For this, no craftsmanship, no special rituals or spells, no secret traditions and the like are necessary, but a certain consciousness, which in the Kabbalistic tradition is called "Da'ath". This is the state of letting go and of boundlessness. The way to it can be sudden - which can be felt as a jumping into a bottomless abyss. Or it can be approached gradually - in which case it can be one of the most pleasant states of all ... a smile like Buddha, a boundaryless consciousness like the gods have, a fully conscious collective subconsciousness ... just Da'ath ...
