Hedwig Bollhagen and the HB-Werkstätten Sep 29 2023 "Hedwig Bollhagen is considered one of the most important and best-known female ceramic artists of the 20th century. Her oeuvre includes countless items especially mass-produced everyday ceramics but also one-offs and building ceramics. The exhibition features more than one hundred items and offers a representative cross-section of the specimens and one-offs kept in the HB-Werkstätten storerooms in Marwitz. The selection ranges from historical ceramics to pieces that are currently in production, vividly demonstrating that Bollhagen's designs remain topical." From the foreword.

ENRIQUE MARTINEZ CELAYA:MARINER'S... HB Jun 22 2020 Despite leaving the Caribbean in 1982, the sea has remained with Martínez Celaya (b. 1964, Havana) as a 'stowaway'. 'The sea', he writes, 'was the end of all paths and the edge of all comings and goings, the reference point for conversations, and the all-absorbing witness of a history of colonialism and longing.' In these paintings, the artist portrays the sea in its various moods: at times passive, at others exerting significant impact on the protagonists' journeys. Although often working in multiple mediums, including sculpture and the written word, the nature of painting and its capacity to create and sustain meaning remains one of Martínez Celaya's central concerns. The artist views painting as a sustained process of inquiry, and often significantly reworks an artwork several times over the course of months or years. This catalogue includes newly-commissioned essays by art historian and poet Barry Schwabsky; a conversation between Martínez Celaya and the writer and psychoanalyst Anouchka Grose; as well as the artist's texts and his selection of poetry. Alongside works from the exhibition, the catalogue also features photographs of Martínez Celaya at work in his studio, his materials and notes, shedding light on his creative process. Published on the occasion of the exhibition, Enrique Martínez Celaya: The Mariner's Meadow at Blain Southern, London (23 May - 13 July 2019).

Jewelry + Image: the Grassi Adorns Hb Sep 17 2022 Im großen Chor der Kunstszene ist der Autorenschmuck eine kleine, aber gut vernehmliche Stimme. Unter den angewandten Künsten ist er seit einigen Jahrzehnten Motor für Innovationen und Seismograf für aktuelle Diskurse. Das GRASSI Museum für Angewandte Kunst stellt erstmalig seinen Bestand modernen Schmucks vor. Die Sammlung schlägt einen zeitlichen Bogen von der Mitte des 20. Jahrhunderts bis heute. Gesichtet und aufbereitet geben die Schmuckstücke Einblicke in das facettenreiche Schaffen von rund 180 internationalen Schmuckkünstlern und Schmuckkünstlerinnen. Die Sammlung repräsentiert in weiten Teilen die internationalen Entwicklungen der Schmuckkunst und gewährt dabei auch einen besonderen Blick auf ostdeutsche Positionen. Wie vielseitig und wandlungsfähig die Wahrnehmung von Schmuck am Menschen ist, zeigen die Aufnahmen von elf Leipziger Fotografen und Fotografinnen.

Personal Structures 2019 May 26 2023 This publication accompanies the exhibition Personal Structures in the context of the 57th Biennale di Venezia (11 May - 24 November 2019, Venice, Italy). Initiated in 2002 by the Dutch artist Rene Rietmeyer, the project Personal Structures has exhibited extensively and has been several times an official part of the Venice Biennale. Organised by the European Cultural Centre, this exhibition presents around 200 artists from more than 40 countries. A combination of established artists and others whose oeuvre is less known. However, what they have in common is a dedication to the concepts time, space and existence. Featured artists are Yoko Ono, Hermann Nitsch, Sarah Gold, Arnulf Rainer, Valie Export, Nobuyoshi Araki, and many others. Accompanies the exhibition Personal Structures which is organized by the European Cultural Centre in Venice, Italy in 2019.

Simon Hantai Hb Mar 24 2023 * Published to accompany an exhibition at the Fondation Louis Vuitton from 27 April-28 August 2022* An exceptional exhibition at the Fondation Louis Vuitton showing around 120 paintings of Simon Hantai, some of them never shown before in a museum. On the centenary of Hantai's birth (1922-2008), the Fondation Louis Vuitton organizes a major retrospective exhibition of the artist's work. French of Hungarian origin, the artist received the first prize from the Maeght Foundation in 1967, then the national grand prize for plastic arts in 1980, as well as representing France at the 40th Venice Biennale in 1982. The exhibition will present around 120 works from the years 1957-2000, with mostly unpublished large formats exceptionally loaned by the artist's estate, as well as about 15 works which he donated to public institutions or from large private collections, in France or abroad. Hantai was strongly influenced by Matisse and Pollock. An in-situ intervention by Daniel Buren will be designed as a tribute to the artist. The catalogue by Anne Baldassari, curator of the exhibition, will include contributions from Zsuzsa Hantai, Anna Hantai, Anne Baldassari, Jean- Luc Nancy (+), and Georges Didi-Huberman.

Under the Spell of the Palm Tree Apr 12 2022 In collaboration with The Cuban Arts Group, the Harn Museum of Art at the University of Florida produced a catalogue in conjunction with the exhibition "Under the Spell of the Palm Tree: The Rice Collection of Cuban Art" on view from July 11, 2023 - January 7, 2024. The works in the catalogue and the exhibition are drawn exclusively from the collection of Susie and Mitchell Rice and offer a glimpse into the complexity of culture and history that has inspired Cuban art throughout the 20th century and into the 21st century. Guest curators Gabriela Azcuy and David Horta utilized the work of a broad range of artists in the Rice Collection to provide an inclusive view of Cuban art, reflecting on its current dynamic and the existence of new geographies as an essential part of its reality. Through more than 70 works representing 54 artists, the exhibition will present the narrative of a "crossing"--a virtual crossing of the seas as well as a crossing of generations, of artists living or having lived both in Cuba and in the Diaspora.

Our Show Apr 24 2023 This edition includes interesting and funny stories about major characters and events of the period - the exhibitions, politicians, protests, bankers...
