Chapters: Boiling Springs High School (Pennsylvania), Camp Hill High School, Carlisle High School (Carlisle, Pennsylvania), Cedar Cliff High School, Cumberland Valley High School, Cumberland Valley School District, East Pennsboro High School, Good Hope Middle School, Harrisburg Academy, Mechanicsburg Area Senior High School, Monroe Elementary School (Boiling Springs, Pennsylvania), Trinity High School (Camp Hill, Pennsylvania). Excerpt: The Cumberland Valley School District is a large, rural and suburban public school district located in Central Pennsylvania. It covers Hampden Township, Monroe Township, Middlesex Township and Silver Spring Township in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania. It serves about 7,700 students and features three academic buildings and one administration building. The district operates seven Elementary Schools (K-5th), two Middle Schools (6th-8th) and Cumberland Valley High School (9th-12th). In 2011, the district agreed to participate in a pilot program to develop a new way to evaluate teachers that, in part, takes into account student achievement. Several Cumberland County school districts are participating, including: Big Spring School District, Carlisle Area School District and Camp Hill School District. The pilot program had 104 K-12 entities, including: nine career and technical centers, nine charter schools and nine intermediate units. Beginning in January 2012, Cumberland County schools will use the new evaluation method and provide feedback to the Pennsylvania Department of Education. This new evaluation will not be used to determine an educator's official 2011-12 assessment. The district is served by the Capital Area Intermediate Unit 15 which offers a variety of services including: a completely developed K-12 curriculum that is mapped and aligned with the Pennsylvania Academic Standards... Activate Your English is a short course for adults. Documents and assesses the evolution of the Pennsylvania Intermediate Unit Grant Development Network, which was established for K-12 grant writers and serves as a means of sharing information about grants, providing support and training opportunities, and promoting collaborative grant applications in the field of public education. Methodologies include a literature review, a survey of network participants, and key informant interviews with recognized experts in the field of education grant seeking. The literature review documents that the ingredients for successful collaborations are the same ingredients that participants and key informants feel will contribute to the success of the Grant Development Network. The literature also documents effective collaborative partnerships and cites examples of grants that encourage or require collaboration as a requisite for proposal submission. Learning to read and write Chinese requires lots of practice. This unique

practice guide can be used with any Chinese textbook or on its own to enhance your proficiency in reading and writing Mandarin Chinese. Intermediate Written Chinese Practice Essentials offers a wealth of carefully-designed exercises and activities to help you develop every aspect of your reading and writing ability. This workbook has been designed so it can be used either in a class with an instructor or by independent learners working on their own. Both simplified and traditional characters are taught and practiced in the same volume. This means students can learn either or both kinds of characters without having to purchase another book, and instructors have the flexibility to teach a combined class where some students read and write one type of characters and other students the other type. This workbook provides character practice sheets for the 336 characters introduced in Intermediate Written Chinese, with complete information on stroke order and direction for both the simplified and traditional forms of the characters. Reading and writing exercises are included, such as those involving dictation and the answering of questions based on the content of each lesson. English-Chinese translation exercises are provided for each unit. The Downloadable content provides: Native-speaker audio recordings for dictation practice. Printable flash cards for all the new characters and words, with Chinese characters on one side and Pinyin and English on the other. Printable pdf files with additional exercises and activities. Together with this book, you can use Intermediate Spoken Chinese if you want to learn fluent spoken Mandarin. About the Series: Respected Chinese language expert Dr. Cornelius Kubler, who has taught diplomats, business people and students, presents a learning system that uses separate but integrated "tracks" to help you efficiently master the basics of spoken and written Chinese. The materials in the Basic Chinese series allow you to move from complete beginner level to basic fluency. A new theory of the structure of phonological representations for segments and syllables.
