Encyclopedia of French Film Directors May 12 2022 Cinema has been long associated with France, dating back to 1895, when Louis and Auguste Lumi_re screened their works, the first public viewing of films anywhere. Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès, Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumière brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond. In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors, Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895. From undisputed masters to obscure one-timers, nearly 3,000 directors are cited here, including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France. Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary, including dates and places of birth and death; information on the individual's education and professional training; and other pertinent details, such as real names (when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym). The entries also provide complete filmographies, including credits for feature films, shorts, documentaries, and television work. Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia, from masters of the Golden Age—Jean Renoir and René Clair—to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean-Luc Godard.

Migrant Text Sep 23 2020 The expression "littérature migrante," coined by Québécois critics in the mid-1980s, reflected the emerging body of literary works written by recent immigrants to the province. Redefining the concept of migrancy, Subha Xavier's The Migrant Text argues that global movements of people have fundamentally changed literary production over the past thirty years. Bringing together a corpus of recent novels by immigrants to France and Quebec, Xavier suggests that these diverse works extend beyond labels such as francophone or postcolonial literature to forge a new mode of writing that deserves recognition on its own terms. Weaving together literary theory and salient examples taken from numerous French-language novels, The Migrant Text shows how both external and internal factors shape migrant writing in contemporary French literature. The opening chapters trace the elusive concept of the migrant as it appears in extant theories of nationalism, postcolonialism, world literature, and francophonie. What follows are incisive analyses of fiction written for French audiences by authors from Algeria, Cameroon, China, Haiti, Iraq, and Poland, whose works reveal that the processes of troubling national categories and evading colonial power dynamics can be wellsprings for creativity. One of the most pressing social and political topics of our day, immigration challenges our ideas about homeland and citizenship. Celebrating the courage and tenacity of immigrants from around the world, The Migrant Text carves a new space for discussing the dynamics of global literature.

Strip-tease Aug 27 2023 A trente-deux ans, Cérita, strip-teaseuse au Monico, à Cannes voit avec anxiété pâlir son étoile. Son seul espoir : succéder bientôt à Florence, sa patronne, gravement malade, dont elle s'est attaché le mari, Léon, d'une façon qu'elle croit sûre. Mais tout est compromis le jour où Maud, une débutante de dix-neuf ans, ravissante et faussement ingénue, franchit pour la première fois le seuil du Monico. La clientèle s'enthousiasme, et Léon en fait bientôt la vedette du spectacle.. Comment une rivalité à la fois professionnelle et amoureuse va se muer en un combat désespéré, où même le crime est envisageable pour conjurer la déchéance : c'est ce que nous conte, avec une saisissante vérité psychologique et une apparente impassibilité qui ne fait que souligner le drame, le romancier de Lettre à mon juge, le créateur de Maigret.

National Performance Mar 30 2021 In National Performance, Erin Hurley examines the complex relationship between performance and national identity. How do theatrical performances represent the nation in which they were created? How is Québécois performance used to define Quebec as a nation and to cultivate a sense of 'Quebec-ness' for audiences both within and outside the province? In exploring Expo 67, the critical response to Michel Tremblay's Les Belles Soeurs, Carbone 14's image-theatre, Marco Micone's writing practices, Celine Dion's popular music, and feminist performance of the 1970s and 80s, Hurley reveals the ways in which certain performances come to be understood as 'national' while others are relegated to sub-national or outsider status. Each chapter focuses on a particular historical moment in Quebec's modern history and a genre of performance emblematic of the moment, and uses these to elaborate the nature of the national performances. Winner of the Northeast Modern Language Association's Book Prize, National Performance is sophisticated yet accessible, seeking to enlarge the parameters of what counts as 'Québécois' performance, while providing a thorough introduction to changing discourses of nation-ness in Quebec.

Find Me Aug 23 2020 La conclusion de Found, l'histoire de Gwen et JC en deux tomes, suite de Free Me, par Laureline Paige, auteure de best-sellers au classement du New York Times. Je suis venue au Sky Launch pour tout recommencer, loin des horreurs de mon passé. Les circonstances qui m'ont amenée ici n'étaient pas idéales, mais je me suis liée d'amitié avec Alayna et Hudson Pierce, et ma famille a guéri comme je ne l'aurais jamais cru possible. Avec eux dans mon entourage proche, je ne me suis jamais sentie plus en confiance. Mais pour tout recommencer à zéro, il faut savoir lâcher prise. Et il y a certaines choses que je ne veux pas abandonner – JC, par exemple, l'homme qui m'a appris à me libérer. L'homme que je n'étais pas censée aimer. L'homme que je ne veux pas perdre. Je suis en sécurité dans ma vie désormais. Les menaces du passé sont devenues moins inquiétantes et je me retrouve face à un choix : tourner la page ou me raccrocher à l'espoir que JC m'aime suffisamment pour venir me retrouver.

Comics in French Aug 03 2021 Whereas in English-speaking countries comics are for children or adults "who should know better," in France and Belgium the form is recognized as the "ninth art" and follows in the path of poetry, architecture, painting, and cinema. The bande dessinée [comic strip] has its own national institutions, regularly obtains front-page coverage, and has received the accolades of statesmen from De Gaulle onwards. On the way to providing a comprehensive introduction to the most francophone of cultural phenomena, this book will consider national specificity as relevant to an anglophone reader, whilst exploring related issues such as text/image expression, historical precedents, and sociological implication. To do so it will present and analyse priceless manuscripts, a Franco-American rodent, Nazi propaganda, a museum-piece urinal, intellectual gay porn and a prehistoric warrior who's really Zinedine Zidane.

Traduire Dec 07 2021 This collection of themes and versions is intended for use by English-speaking students at universities in Canada, the United States and the United Kingdom. The 120 texts, which mark out four distinct levels, can be used in the second, third and fourth years of Canadian universities; the simpler ones are suitable for young adults who have completed four or five years of French in high school and one year at university, or the equivalent. All the texts date from the 20th century or the first years of the 21st. Most are excerpts from novels, stories and plays, but print media and literary theory are also represented in this collection; excerpts from great authors alongside excerpts from detective novels and spy novels; Canadian authors have their place alongside American, British and Irish authors; the versions come not only from French texts but also from Quebec, French-Canadian or Haitian texts; many of the authors chosen are women.

A White Rose* Jun 20 2020 In a virtual world everything is stupidly easy, if you choose to be alone you do not feel lonely. However with advance graphics you can feel dread or apprehension as the scenes change. When I decided to walk across the bed of a sea; stupidly easy of course; the avatar did not drown. Then I discovered the always run button with regard to other avatars, and hence ended my anxiety at being unable to operate the communicate box. I never heard from the virtual friend I had earlier made and sent second life to the waste bin after I signed off or escaped.

Investigating Simenon Oct 05 2021 For nearly a century, the work of Belgian crime writer and psychological novelist Georges Simenon, creator of Chief Inspector Maigret, has captivated readers worldwide. This investigation situates Simenon's work in its historical context and interprets it as a reaction to shifting gender relations in Western society. Simenon's compelling narratives capture the anxieties of men whose patriarchal position was under threat in an era of insurgent feminist movements. These concerns are also evident in Simenon's pervasive preoccupation with sexuality, as well as his political stance that stems from his petit-bourgeois upbringing. This groundbreaking study includes interwoven commentary on all 191 novels Simenon published under his own name, including several that have never been translated into English, as well as a number of short stories and several pseudonymous works.

Strip-Tease* Apr 18 2020 Dans une ruelle de Cannes, non loin du port, le " Monico " allume le soir ses néons fatigués proposant un spectacle de strip-tease. M. Léon dirige le cabaret de façon plutôt débonnaire et l'ombrageuse Mme Florence, sa femme, tient la caisse. A l'affiche, Celita, la rouquine en costume espagnol, " l'incomparable Kelly " en fourreau de soie noire ou la " grosse " Natacha, dans sa tapageuse toilette 1900. Des filles simples et banales, faisant honnêtement leur métier de danseuses mimant l'amour, devant un parterre le plus souvent indifférent. Jusqu'au jour où Maud, la nouvelle recrue de M. Léon, apparaît sur scène. Dans la coulisse et dans la salle, chacun reste figé d'admiration.

Les coulisses du strip-tease Jul 22 2020 Charlotte, une jeune provinciale fraîchement débarquée à la capitale, fait ses premiers pas dans l'univers impitoyable du strip-tease. Elle ira de surprise en surprise, d'expérience en expérience. Dans un style primesautier qui reflète sa personnalité juvénile, Charlotte nous fera découvrir son parcours, ne nous épargnant aucun détail sur ceux et celles qu'elle côtoie, ni sur ces spectateurs qui n'ont d'yeux que pour elle. Ce faisant, elle démystifie ce monde de la nuit, objet de tant de préjugés à force d'être mal connu. Un récit autobiographique teinté d'humour et de tendresse qui ne peut que toucher le lecteur par sa sincérité. Ce récit est aussi une leçon de vie, une ouverture d'esprit, un regard différent à poser sur des femmes, des filles, créatives, tendres et rebelles à la fois. C'est une révélation explosive !

Avignon et partout ailleurs. Première partie. Roman-voyage sur l'amour et le salut du monde. Basé sur des faits réels, ce texte est publié à la mémoire de son auteur. Jul 02 2021 C'est un roman-voyage, roman-journal qui s'étend d'Avignon en France jusqu'au fins fond de la Sybérie: il raconte un grand amour. Il parle d'une rencontre entre un artiste qui, ayant commencé sa vie dans un orphélinat, est passé par le grand banditisme et a fini par arriver dans le show-business, et une écrivaine qui n'a pas voulu passer à côté de son histoire et, du coup, à fini par écrire la sienne. Et, surtout, c'est un roman qui parle de la foi. L'histoire est réelle.

Topless Jan 20 2023 Quand un pianiste solitaire s'acoquine à une strip-teaseuse solaire... un road movie existentiel plein d'élégance et d'aventure, au graphisme remarquable... Martin est pianiste dans un bar à strip-tease. Un bon job, diront certains ! Si ce n'est que Martin est plus du genre à s'absorber dans ses feuilles de partitions et ses volutes de cigarettes que dans l'effeuillage fumeux des filles sur scène ! Ce qui convient parfaitement à Monsieur Frognard, le gérant de la boîte. Trop ravi que son pianiste ait plus les yeux sur son clavier que sur la symphonie de magouilles dont il est le chef d'orchestre... Jusqu'au jour où la sublime Jeanne, l'effeuilleuse vedette de la revue, propose à Martin de tout plaquer pour partir à l'aventure dans la DS du patron... Un pianiste lunaire. Une strip-teaseuse terre-à-terre. Un gros magot planqué dans le coffre de la DS. L'escapade romantique ne n'annonce pas des plus reposantes... Interprétée par Olivier Balez et Arnaud Le Gouefflec, Topless est une balade en terres d'élégance et de polar sur un air de Theolonious Monk. Un road-movie tout à tour contemplatif et brûlant de sentiments contrastés. Une véritable réussite graphique et narrative.

Re-imagining Language and Literature for the 21st Century Nov 25 2020 In 28 essays selected from the proceedings of the XXII International Congress of FILLM held at Assumption University, Bangkok, scholars and teachers of languages and literatures have noted, bemoaned and analyzed the waning influence of the humanities to varying degrees. They have raised questions, offered solutions and vigorously defended their languages and literatures, often in no uncertain terms - not as a politically correct thing to do, but as a human obligation. The papers presented here are true to the spirit of the Congress from the moment of the keynote address to what followed in a spontaneous outbreak of voices from scholars of more than 70 universities throughout the world. For the first time, in an international congress, scholars have described with great sensitivity many languages and literatures often considered the periphery, in a sincere attempt to understand ‘the other’, thus making a passionate plea for inclusion in the umbrella of the world’s languages and literatures. With contributions by keynote speaker and authority on Comparative Literature Gayatri Spivak, USA and plenary speakers Vridhagiri Ganeshan, India; Roger Sell, Finland; Antoine Compagnon, France; and Chetana Nagavajara, Thailand this volume is of immense interest to scholars and teachers of languages and literatures the world over.

Strip Tease Jun 25 2023 NATIONAL BESTSELLER • From “Florida’s most entertainingly indignant social critic” (New York Times Book Review)—an inventive tale yet of savage appetites and sweet justice. Only in America could an innocent, if drunken, guest of honor at a strip joint bachelor party become a mortal threat against Big Money and Big Government. Only in south Florida, land of roadside honky-tonks and sinister pleasure boats—not to mention blackmail and murder—would a virtuous topless dancer join forces with a cool but clueless cop. And only in the fiction of Carl Hiaasen do readers experience riveting suspense and razor-sharp characters along with the most wicked humor imaginable.

Paris in the Fifties Jul 14 2022 In July 1947, fresh out of college and long before he would win the Pulitzer Prize and become known as one of America's finest historians, Stanley Karnow boarded a freighter bound for France, planning to stay for the summer. He stayed for ten years, first as a student and later as a correspondent for Time magazine. By the time he left, Karnow knew Paris so intimately that his French colleagues dubbed him "le plus parisien des Américains" --the most Parisian American. Now, Karnow returns to the France of his youth, perceptively and wittily illuminating a time and place like none other. Karnow came to France at a time when the French were striving to return to the life they had enjoyed before the devastation of World War II. Yet even during food shortages, political upheavals, and the struggle to come to terms with a world in which France was no longer the mighty power it had been, Paris remained a city of style, passion, and romance. Paris in the Fifties transports us to Latin Quarter cafés and basement jazz clubs, to unheated apartments and glorious ballrooms. We meet such prominent political figures as Charles de Gaulle and Pierre Mendès-France, as well as Communist hacks and the demagogic tax rebel Pierre Poujade. We get to know illustrious intellectuals, among them Jean-Paul Sartre, Simone de Beauvoir, Albert Camus, and André Malraux, and visit the glittering salons where aristocrats with exquisite manners mingled with trendy novelists, poets, critics, artists, composers, playwrights, and actors. We meet Christian Dior, who taught Karnow the secrets of haute couture, and Prince Curnonsky, France's leading gourmet, who taught the young reporter to appreciate the complexities of haute cuisine. Karnow takes us to marathon murder trials in musty courtrooms, accompanies a group of tipsy wine connoisseurs on a tour of the Beaujolais vineyards, and recalls the famous automobile race at Le Mans when a catastrophic accident killed more than eighty spectators. Back in Paris, Karnow hung out with visiting celebrities like Ernest Hemingway, Orson Welles, and Audrey Hepburn, and in Paris in the Fifties we meet them too. A veteran reporter and historian, Karnow has written a vivid and delightful history of a charmed decade in the greatest city in the world.

Children and Youth in the Labour Process in Africa Dec 27 2020 It is increasingly clear that children and the youth today play a significant role in the labour process in Africa. But, to what extent is this role benign? And when and why does this role become exploitative rather than beneficial? This book on children and the youth in Africa sets out to address these questions. The book observes that in Africa today, children are under pressure to work, often engaged in the worst forms of child labour and therefore not living out their role as children. It argues that the social and economic environment of the African child is markedly different from what occurs elsewhere, and goes further to challenge all factors that have combined in stripping children of their childhood and turning them into instruments and commodities in the labour process. It also explains the sources, dynamics, magnitude and likely consequences of the exploitation of children and the youth in contemporary Africa. The book is an invaluable contribution to the discourse on children, while the case studies are aimed at creating more awareness about the development problems of children and the youth in Africa, with a view to evolving more effective national and global responses.

Jean Cocteau Apr 30 2021 This is a comprehensive, original and accessible account of all aspects of Jean Cocteau's work in the cinema. It is the first major study in English to appear for over forty years and casts new light on Cocteau's most celebrated films as well as those often neglected or little known. Jean Cocteau is not only one of French cinema's greatest and most influential auteurs whose work covered all the major genres but also an experimenter, collaborator, theorist and all-round ambassador of film. This lucid account provides a complete introduction to Cocteau's cinematic project in the context of his entire oeuvre, detailed analysis of individual films, and a thematic engagement with all his cinema from a range of interdisciplinary perspectives. The Cocteau that emerges is at once a materialist filmmaker and visionary who is committed to realism in all its guises and reveals the wonder and mystery of what he called 'the cinematograph'.
