With demands for improved quality, increasing competition for state and federal funds, and the challenges of integrating technology into the curriculum, higher education faces greater economic uncertainties than ever before. The chief financial officer (CFO) of any higher education institution stands squarely in the middle of this maelstrom. This issue of New Directions for Higher Education offers CFOs proven strategies for balancing the operating and capital budgets, maximizing net enrollment revenues, containing costs, planning for the resource needs of technology, identifying and managing risks, and investing the endowment wisely. The contributors discuss how CFOs can build positive relationships with key players in the campus's financial planning and budget, including admissions and financial aid staff, state legislatures, and the board investment committee. This is the 107th issue of the quarterly journal New Directions for Higher Education. This Directive: 1. Implements reference (a). 2. Assigns CFO, DoD, responsibilities and authorities prescribed herein, under the authority vested in the Secretary of Defense by reference (b). Biography of Alan Woghin, Cpa, Ms, currently Vice President for Finance and Chief Financial Officer at Institute for Family Health, previously Managing Director / Partner at RSM McGladrey, Inc and Partner at Goldstein Golub Kessler LLP. CFO Insights: Delivering High Performance explores the implications of Accenture's high performance finance research and interprets the link between high performance business and the role of the CFO in delivering this. Written from the perspective of the Chief Financial Officer, the book provides real-world, relevant examples, including flagship interviews with CFOs of high performing businesses. The book also includes industry analyses prepared by the Accenture Strategy and Business Architecture Practice, case studies, and chapters dedicated to the CFO and financial practices of Japan, China, Latin America, and Eastern Europe. Are accountability and ownership for Chief Financial Officer clearly defined? Who will be responsible for making the decisions to include or exclude requested changes once Chief Financial Officer is underway? How can we improve Chief Financial Officer? Is there a Chief Financial Officer management charter, including business case, problem and goal statements, scope, milestones, roles and responsibilities, communication plan?
