One fateful day, Ezo Kazuhiko stepped foot inside the dungeon that appeared inside his yard and ended up triggering the Dungeon Outbreak Phenomenon. Together with the companions he ' s gathered under his new company, Dungeon Busters Inc., he successfully clears Sapporo Dungeon. Within its deepest parts, he discovers...reliefs confirming the existence of an entity behind the emergencies?! As humankind celebrates its first ever victory, Ezo decides where to take the company going forward and cooperates with the Japanese government in pushing the adventurer initiative ever further. At the same time, the successive appearance of even more dungeons forces other countries around the world to decide exactly what it is that they will be doing about the dungeons. How will the major powers of Gamera and Sina move? Change is coming, and fast! The world continues plunging into even further chaos in the second volume of this dungeon-delving epic with overwhelming realism! An uppercase letter book set in the BIGGEST little show on earth. Join Buster and friends in the Big Top for a BIG letter show your child won't soon forget. Bugville Jr. is an imprint of developmentally appropriate, interactive books designed to provide lessons about life, friendship, family, and our natural world to children ages 6 months and up. The Bugville Critters stories originally were written by Robert Stanek as bedtime stories for his own children. His children enjoyed the stories so much they urged him to make the stories available to other children and that's what he set out to do in 2004. This Bugville Jr Learning Adventure, written by best-selling author Robert Stanek, is designed to build letter skills. Includes parent tips for advancing skills and getting more out of subsequent readings. The story of the British-made bombs, Upkeep and Highball, successfully dropped on Nazi dams “ has never been told in such depth before ” (Daily Mail, UK). The night of May 16, 1943: Nineteen specially adapted Lancaster bombers take off from an RAF airfield in Lincolnshire, England, each with a huge nine-thousand-pound cylindrical bomb strapped underneath it. Their mission: to destroy three hydroelectric dams that power the Third Reich ' s war machine. It was a suicide mission from the outset. First the men had to fly extremely low, at night, and in tight formation over miles of enemy-occupied territory. Then they had to drop with pinpoint precision a complicated spinning cylindrical bomb that had never before been used operationally. More than that, the entire operation had to be put together in less than ten weeks in order to hit the dams when water levels were still high enough for the bombs to be effective. The visionary aviation engineer Barnes Wallis hadn ' t even drawn up plans for his concept when the bouncing bomb was green-lighted. What followed was an incredible race against time that, despite numerous setbacks, became one of the most successful and significant bombing raids of all time. “ Holland has delved into the new trove ” of declassified documents “ to shed light on this weapons program, the politics of its development and the eventual mission ” (The Wall Street Journal). “ An impeccably researched work in the style of a fast-paced techno-thriller. ” —Publishers Weekly “ Extremely detailed but never dull . . . Holland offers a definitive, nuts-and-bolts history. ” —Kirkus Reviews “ A well-written study of engineering and invention operating under great pressure. . . . For all World War II history buffs. ” —Library Journal, starred review Fifty-one original puzzles include complex crosswords, a collection of amusing stories with a series of clues that lead to a single solution at the end, and an advanced series of math and logic puzzles — no skills beyond high school algebra needed. Most puzzles include hints; solutions are provided for all. Buster, The Big Yellow School Bus, is a delightful story about a school bus named Buster and his favorite driver, Miss Lilly. The author adds a twist to the story when she creates Buster, who has a mind of his own. Buster could not only hear the children, but he could see them as well, and he also knew how to talk! Buster encounters three students aboard his bus as he teaches them a delicate lesson. Chug, chug, chug, down the winding roads of Thomasville County goes

Buster with a big smile on his face. An activity book that acts as a companion to the TV series Brain games. My husband and I lived in Arlington, VA, for 15 years, in a cozy condominium until they retired. While we were there, my husband's health took a slight turn and he spent some time recovering. As he convalesced, he watched the neighbors around the block walk their dogs along the sidewalk from the living room window. Valentine's Day was quickly approaching and I thought to surprise him with a stuffed animal. I ventured out to our department store and purchased a stuffed puppy and some chocolates to comfort him. He was delighted when I presented him this surprise. This small gesture of love seemed to ease the desire for an animate dog. It was actually my husband's illness and passion for dogs, that inspired me to write a series of books under the umbrella of "Buster's Big Adventure's." My first book, "A Puppy's Special Day," is almost true to life. "Buster's Big Surprise" is the second book of five more under this series. A thrilling series of action packed tales of a group of agents hired by a secret elite organisation to defend humanity from all threats. Warning, contains strong language and violence! Not recommended for anyone under 15! No matter how good a marketer you are, it is easy to slide into behaviors that ultimately make your marketing less effective. Chris Wirthwein has identified the seven most common mistakes made by marketers of technical and scientific products and he explains how to avoid them. With wit and passion, he helps you learn how to overcome the mistakes of marketers of technical and scientific products and how you can learn from these mistakes no matter what kind of product or service you are offering. You learn how to avoid the mistakes and get on with efficient marketing and advertising. The seven mistakes? 1. Talking "Needs" Instead of "Wants" 2. Falling in Love With your Product Instead of Your Customer 3. Believing that Marketing is a Science or an Art 4. Trying to Please Everyone 5. Forgetting that People Forget 6. Believing Your Price is Too High--Without Proof 7. Believing You Must Sell Your Product on an Economic Basis Wirthwein's 20+ years of experience with marketing and selling technical and scientific products at his agency 5MetaCom translates into easily understood principles that will help you become and remain a better marketer. Epic story of low-level strikes on Axis navies in World War II One of the most dangerous forms of air attack used during the war Written by a participant This stirring book recounts how British torpedo-bombers took the war to enemy naval fleets and shipping vessels during World War II. Episodes covered include the attack by a single plane on a German battleship, the torpedoing of the Gneisenau in Brest harbor, and the vital blows against the supply lines of Rommel's Afrika Korps in the Mediterranean. Meet Buster Bee and the critters! The irresistible characters from Robert Stanek, bestselling creator of Ruin Mist and Magic Lands, are off on fantastic learning adventures at the circus. In this special omnibus edition, we collect 4 complete picture books. Inside you'll find the reader favorites: Buster's Really Great Big Top Show, Buster's Big Top Big Letters Show, Buster's Big Top Little Letters Show, and Buster's Big Top 1 2 3 Letters Show. These stories focus on basic ABC and 123 skills. Your child will learn about the numbers 1 to 20 and the letters A to Z including both lowercase letters and uppercase letters. This book is for all little boys and girls who love animals. BUSTER THE BEAR is brave and fearless in danger, and so lovable that you won't lay down this book without saying wistfully, "I almost wish I had him really and truly as a friend and not just a story-book acquaintance." This, of course, is a splendid wish; but none of us could afford to have a big brown bear as a friend and living in their house, for that is just what you would have to do if you went outside of the books. So we will leave them just where they are—in the books—and read about them, and let our imaginations take us to him where we can see them playing, skipping, singing, and sometimes fighting, and if we read very carefully, and think as we go along, we may come to know them even better than if we went out hunting for them. In the meantime, come out into the woods with me, and let us listen and watch, and I promise you it will be worthwhile. The stories and adventures of Buster in this volume are: I When Buster Was a Cub II Buster and Loup III How Buster Got Out of the River IV Buster is Carried Away by the Men V How Buster Was Stolen VI Buster's Cruel Masters VII Buster Makes His Escape VIII Buster's First Public Appearance IX Buster Saves Chiquita X Buster Becomes a Trick Bear XI Buster In a Railroad Wreck XII Buster Meets the Little Girl Again XIII Buster and the Little Girl XIV Buster Tries to Escape and is Discovered XV Buster is to be Sent to the Zoo XVI Buster Returns to the

Dottie and Buster's Trip to the Big City is a true story about the author and her nephew as children in the 1940's and their trip to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania by train. During this trip, they had the chance to see the nation's capital city and visit historical places in Philadelphia, some of which their playmates may never get to see and will only read about in their school books. The story will introduce readers to a southern African American family, how they lived, loved, and had fun during the time of segregation in the South. As they read, they will be able to explore different cultural environments of people and their way of life in both the North and South. The book is intended for educational and entertainment purposes and will engage children and youths in active reading. They will read and learn about important cities and landmarks, famous people and their accomplishments to our great nation, The United States of America. Dottie's and Buster's Trip to the Big City can be used as a supplemental teaching tool in elementary social studies curriculum and will be readily available to all institutions of learning, e.g. public schools, chartered schools, church schools, colleges, universities, libraries, and bookstores for children, youths, and adults. This book will enable the reader to gain knowledge and understanding of another time era, to experience the benefits of reading a delightful story, and to learn a lesson in American history. New York City is made up of five different boroughs and there are a lot of things to see and do. This activity-packed tour guide will show you around Manhattan, Queens, Brooklyn, the Bronx, and Staten Island with coloring pages, crosswords, mazes, word searches, spot-the-differences, and other puzzles about the city that never sleeps. Bull Mohawk, an offshore rig drilling for oil in the Gulf of Mexico, is about to make a horrific discovery. Unknown to man, trapped beneath Earth's crust and latched onto oil-filled rock pockets, are things soon to be known as "Oil Busters." The colorful crew of the Bull Mohawk must struggle to save their rig from an unknown entity. Meanwhile, scientists make their way to the distressed rig to find out why drilling operations seem to be declining in the United States. Other countries, unaware of the Oil Busters, see this as the perfect opportunity to play an awful political game with America and her allies. Our greatest fears have been awakened with the arrival of the Oil Busters. What's causing the eruption of offshore rigs around the globe? Will the crew of the Bull Mohawk stand and fight or flee the rig? How will the President of the United States save the country from an oil crisis? This catastrophe has been long in the making, but humanity may pull through if we work together. This Big Nate activity book is bursting with exclusive activities. Clear all the dungeons! There are 666 of them and 10 years to do it. If not, the only thing that awaits...is total annihilation. Ezo Kazuhiko suddenly finds a mysterious underground space in his yard. When he steps into what turns out to be the very first dungeon in this world, he ends up activating the Dungeon System and learns from the mysterious beauty who appears to him, Akane, that the world is doomed to destruction if the 666 total dungeons that will be appearing in this world are not all cleared within 10 years. As countries begin taking measures in response to the dungeons appearing all over the world, Ezo seeks out companions together with whom he establishes Dungeon Busters Inc., a company dedicated to clearing all the dungeons in the world! The curtains rise on this dungeon-delving epic with overwhelming realism! Bronc Busters and Hay Sloops tells the story of ranching in the West from the beginning of the Great War until 1960. Cowboy soldiers, bronc busters, First Nations, upper-crust Englishmen and the strong, capable women of ranching country . . . theirs are the stories told in this book. Some of these characters are larger than life, such as: Joe Coutlee, cow boss of the Douglas Lake Ranch, whose booming voice gave him the nickname " Roaring Bill " Grover Hance, who roped one of his men and tied him to a tree until he sobered up Florence " Bunch " Trudeau, whose pet moose got a little too big for comfort Ollie Matheson, one of the only women to ride in the Williams Lake Stampede ' s death-defying Mountain Race Anne Paxton, who tended cattle, guided big-game hunters, ran pack horses and a ranch; Bill Arnold, who could ride " anything that wore hide. " Ken takes readers inside sprawling ranches, which were self-contained communities in themselves, and small family-run homesteads scratched out of the wilderness. Like his first book on ranching history, Buckaroos and Mudpups, this is an engaging look at fascinating times and the people who made them so. The Actionary Saves the Day! When mild-mannered Chesney Arnstruther accidentally summons a demon and causes Hell to go on strike, he doesn ' t expect to wind up as what he had always dreamed of being: the Actionary, a costumed crimefighter with a weasel-headed fiend for a sidekick. But that ' s just the beginning of a journey that will see the " high-functioning " autistic actuary enmeshed in the schemes of a greedy televangelist, romancing a pepper-spray-wielding manicurist, and sitting down to a poker game with the Devil where the stakes include his immortal soul. File Under: Fantasy [Expletives Deleted | Up Up And Away | Writer Of Life | No Demons] The loveable ZEANN gang returns, but they are not together anymore. Andrea and Elise go to Elstree, but the twins, Nnena and Nnadi find themselves in a top grammar school in the country. Unfortunately, it is a school where bullying is rampant. Will having their BFF's Zoe and Nathan at the school make a difference? How will they cope against the toughest bullies they ever imagined? Who will help them when even the teachers do not care? OMG! As if dealing with puberty was not difficult enough! Then their old nemesis, Zack, the top bully shows up again. A near tragic experience brings things to a head. What should they do? How will they reunite the rest of the gang to help tackle bullying in their school? Can the legend of the ZEANN gang live on? Get ready to read! LITTLE RED ROBINS are ideal for sharing and reading together. Buster Gutt is the biggest, baddest pirate who ever sailed the seven seas ... and Admiral Goldglove is hot on the trail! Buster's crew are starving. Weevils gobbled their biscuits - they need nosh now! Luckily Allspice island is dead ahead - but there's a big surprise waiting for the hungry horde! Buster Bickles's big ideas are always getting him into trouble. But when Buster gets to test the newly invented What-if Machine, anything Buster imagines becomes reality. Packed with rivers of chocolate, robot dinosaurs, and egg-ray vision, the world becomes Buster's creation in this fantastically creative picture book by debut author-illustrator Dave Wasson.
