Transcript of the investiture ceremony held at the federal courthouse, Des Moines, Iowa, 2:07 p.m., April 22, 2016. Robes and Honor is a fascinating exploration of the possible common origin and subsequent developments of investiture across medieval Christianity and medieval Islam. The ceremony in all of its cultural variety was much more than the public adoption of a high-value textile as symbol of office; within a culture, robing established a personal link 'from the hand' of the giver - king, pope, head of a sect, ambassador - to the receiver - noble, general, official, nun, or acolyte. This volume challenges current thinking on religious and regional boundaries of 'cultures,' raises semiotic issues about imagined communities, and addresses problems of kingship. Revised and updated for the 21st century: the legendary resource on the universality, spirituality, and grandeur of the post-Vatican II Catholic Church. Filled with detailed information that will fascinate any Catholic (What is a zucchetto and who wears one? Why do cardinals have their title in the middle of their names? How do the Knights of Malta serve in the modern Church?), it's also an indispensable reference for scholars, journalists, and anyone in business or government who has practical dealings with the Church. On Friday, Sept. 19, Bob Jones University held an investiture ceremony for Stephen D. Pettit, the University's fifth president since its founding in 1927. BJU has enjoyed a long, rich history as a biblically faithful, liberal arts institution -- a history of academic excellence, cultural enrichment and spiritual passion, grounded in a commitment to God's Word as absolute truth. We are looking forward to Steve Pettit carrying forward BJU's mission as he serves as president, and we are excited to share this significant event in the University's history with the greater Greenville community and beyond. According to academic tradition, the ceremony began with a procession led by Dr. Gary Weier, executive vice president for academic affairs, carrying BJU's new ceremonial mace. He was followed by the BJU academic deans and the BJU Voting Board. Visiting representatives from higher education institutions across the country entered next, followed by BJU faculty members in full regalia. Speakers included the Hon. Nikki Haley, governor of South Carolina; Dr. James Flanagan, Transnational Association of Christian Colleges and Schools (TRACS) Commission Chairman and president of Luther Rice University; Dr. Marty Herron, pastor of Harvest Baptist Church and administrator of Harvest Christian Academy; Dr. Stephen Jones, former president of BJU; and representatives from the university faculty, student body and alumni. The focal point of the ceremony was the presentation of the Chain of Office, symbolizing both the responsibilities incumbent upon and the authority vested in Steve Pettit as president of Bob Jones University. - Publisher. Transcript of ceremony held October 19, 2018 at the Charles Evans Whittaker courthouse, ceremonial courtroom 8C, Kansas City, Missouri. "Through a study of an 'invented tradition' of the investiture of the Prince of Wales, Investiture: Royal Ceremony and National Identity in Wales 1911-1969 explores the problematic, contested and changing relationship between nationality, ethnicity and the state in the United Kingdom." "While examining the role of political parties, social groups and personalities who organized and supported the investitures, this study also explores the responses and ideologies of other figures who actively opposed the ceremonies. The investitures provided alternative and conflicting models of national identity that still resonate in Wales today."--BOOK JACKET.
